King Alfred

King Alfred was an important Anglo Saxon King. We will be creating a piece of information text about him during the last week of term. Your homework is to collect some information about him which you could then use in this piece of writing.

Think about key facts such as:

- When was he born?
- Who was his father?
- When was he King?
- What important events happened during his reign?

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____