

Grammar Recap!

Can you identify every word type in this sentence?

The adorable puppy was playing with his ball in the garden.

The – determiner

adorable – adjective

puppy - noun

was – verb

playing – verb

with - preposition

his – pronoun

ball – noun

in – preposition

the – determiner

garden – noun

Can you identify the main clauses, subordinate clauses and relative clauses in these sentences?

Answers: main clauses, subordinate clauses and relative clause.

Please ask a teacher if you are unsure what you need to do.

Mr Friend, who is a teacher in Year 5, is a very talented musician.

Although there is only a week left of school, we still need to try our very best.

Can you find the grammatical errors?

Error: I should of gone to bed earlier last night; I'm so tired.

Correction: I should have gone to bed earlier last night; I'm so tired.

Error: Me and Patrick are playing tennis together later.

Correction: Patrick and I are playing tennis together later.

Error: I ain't going swimming today.

Correction: I'm not going swimming today.