

Tricky words

1. Circle all the correct spellings in the box below.

2. These words are spelt incorrectly. Write the corrections on the lines.

- newsance ➡ Britian ➡
- caractar ➡ ankor ➡
- extintion ➡ attatch ➡

3. Write each of these words in a sentence.

- necessary
- serious
- fascinated

4. The words in the box are spelt incorrectly.

Use the corrected spellings to fill the blanks in the passage below.

Bella had been very _____ . She'd caused _____ in the bathroom, _____ all of her mum's perfumes and shampoos together. Sadly, her mum realised _____ , and sent Bella to her room. Bella knew there would be further _____ .

E6S222

Tricky words

5. Draw a circle around the word that has been spelt incorrectly in each sentence. Write the correct spelling on the line.

- It's sometimes difficult to guage the weather. gauge
- We're having a celebration for my gran's fiftieth birthday.
- A chameleon can camouflage itself in any enviroment.
- My sister has a tendency to exaggerate her stories.
- At school, we've been practising our discriptive writing.
- My teddy isn't perticularly special, but I love him anyway.

6. Complete this table by filling in the missing letters.

| Word | Clue |
|-------|---|
| _____ | you often see this when you hear thunder |
| _____ | a picture taken with a camera |
| _____ | the organ in your mouth used for tasting |
| _____ | the name for things like pens, pencils and rulers |
| _____ | a percussion instrument played with mallets |
| _____ | something that needs solving; rhymes with 'history' |
| _____ | a book that tells you the meanings of words |

Wow, you've reached the end of the book! Are you feeling like a mighty Spellasaurus? Tick a final box.

