

Christianity

Christianity is a monotheistic religion. What does that mean?

Can you remember the three parts of God?

What do Christians call those three parts when they are one? The H_____ T_____.

Names of God

To know that God has many different names and that these reflect his character.

Names of God

In the Bible, God has many different names. He is one God but has different titles given to him and these titles describe parts of his character.

This is like you being called son/daughter, brother/sister, friend, peer... and would be like us describing you based on what your character is like, for example friendly, caring, sporty, artistic, creative, kind, funny etc.

Understanding the Holy Trinity

The Bible is made up of 66 books, split into 2 parts - the Old Testament (39 books) and the New Testament (27 books).

The Old Testament is written before Jesus was born and the New Testament has accounts of Jesus' life and death and then is all about the early Christian Church.

We're going to have a look at 4 names that God was given in the Old Testament.

CREATOR Abba, Father Light of the World WISDOM
The Lord of Hosts Holy Spirit Elohim
ALPHA AND OMEGA Second Adam THE Way
TRUTH RULER SAVIOR GATE Friend
Lord of Lords JUDGE OF THE EARTH BREAD OF LIFE
SON ROCK GOD I AM LIFE
SERVANT YAHWEH JESUS Jealous God Almighty
The First and the Last IMMANUEL MASTER Lion of Judah
SURE FOUNDATION Good Shepherd DELIVERER
