

Words ending in 'ent' and 'ant'

The content of this page is brilliant. It's all about words ending in 'ent' and 'ant'.

1. Complete this table by adding ent or ant to complete the words in the box.

Ends in ent	Ends in ant
.....	.....	urg
.....	.....	gi
.....	.....	viol
.....	.....	observ
.....	.....	assist
.....	.....	innoc
.....	.....	rec
.....	.....	pheas

2. Underline the word in bold that has the correct ending in each sentence.

Eva loves Spain, and she makes (frequent / frequent) trips to Madrid.

The visitors thought the artwork was simply (magnificant / magnificent).

Robbie wants to be an (accountent / accountant) when he grows up.

Catherine complained that she hadn't had a (decent / decant) cup of tea in a long time.

3. Complete the words in this passage using ent or ant.

After a disagree..... about what the school play should be about, the pupils finally decided on a theme, and there was a lot of excitem..... in the hall. When the import..... auditions took place, some pupils were reluct..... to take part, but others were confid..... they would be given a role. Jane was hesit..... as she approached the expect..... teachers, but after a mom..... or two, she began to sing beautifully.

It's funny how 'ent' and 'ant' can sometimes sound the same. Tick a box to show how well you can spot this.

Words ending in 'ance', 'ancy', 'ence' and 'ency'

1. Add ence or ance to complete the following words.

guid.....      abs.....      ambul.....
 innoc.....      fragr.....      toler.....
 insur.....      reli.....      intellig.....

2. One word in each of the sentences below is spelt incorrectly. Circle the mistake, and write the word out correctly on the line.

Louise currently works for a recruitment agency. ....

Erin has more independance, thanks to her new car. ....

I cannot understand the relevence of this discussion. ....

They didn't seem to see the urgancy of the situation. ....

3. Add ence or ance to complete these words, and then use each of them in a sentence.

occurr .....

appli .....

acquaint .....

exist .....

4. Underline the word in bold that has the correct ending in each sentence.

My brother is studying for an (accountancy / accountency) qualification.

In an (emergancy / emergency), evacuate the building as quickly as possible.

Have you answered all the questions? Are you sure? Then tick a box to show how well you did on this page.

