

Spelling Recap!

What spelling mistakes do you notice? Can you explain why they are wrong?

Dear Aunty Nora,

As you have forbid me to come to your flat I am haveing to right to you.

Our Frankie tells me you has ast her and her boy feind to tea on the 4th. Well I am in chardge of Frankie while our dad is awary and I dont think it is a good idear. Dad wood be proper mad if he fond out. She is a bit young for boy feinds I think you will agree. So they won't be turning up after all, but don't say nuthing, leest said soonest mended.

I hope your back is not playing you up at pressent.

Your loving nepew,

George

P.S. Burn this letter in case Frankie ever sees it, you know how she carris on.

Your Task

Challenge 1&2: Create a table of the incorrect words, explaining the spelling rules that should have been used with the correct spellings.

Challenge 3: Write a letter back to your aunt, explaining her spelling errors in detail.