

The Man Who Walked Between the Towers

Your Task: To write a diary entry as Phillipe Petit describing the day that you walked between the towers.

Dear diary,

Today was an exhilarating day! As I am writing this diary, I can still feel the adrenaline rush from my earlier adventure. Can you imagine seeing New York City from 1340 feet high?

Earlier on today, as I walked past the two towers I imagined what it would be like to dance in the space between them.

Structure:

Introduction- Today was an exhilarating day....

Paragraph 1- How did you feel as you were preparing the stunt? Were you nervous? What steps did you have to take? Were you worried?

Paragraph 2- How did you feel as you stepped on to the wire? Were you afraid of anything?

Paragraph 3- You have been arrested and in your police cell. Are you worried? Would you do the same thing again? Tell me your thoughts and feelings about court tomorrow, what do you think your punishment will be?

Remember:

- Use thoughts and feelings at the beginnings of sentences.
- Conjunctions
- Introduction and conclusion.
- Interesting sentence openers
