Free Relationships, Sex and Health Education Training Programme for Primary and Secondary Schools

Department for Education

Prepare for the new statutory RSHE curriculum

From September 2020, Relationships Education will be compulsory for all primary school age pupils, Relationships and Sex Education (RSE) will be compulsory for all secondary school age pupils and Health Education will be compulsory universally for primary and secondary aged pupils.

3 Teaching Schools have been appointed by the Department for Education in the South East and South London region to provide a free training and support programme for teachers and PSHE leads, incorporating resources provided by the DfE.
